

Greenlight for girls day @Brussels 29/11/2014 - Parental Consent & Release Form

Dear greenlight girl Parent/Guardian:

Thank you for participating for our 5th annual g4gDay here in our headquarters, Brussels! This form is to ensure the security & participation of your daughter/dependant (hereafter referred to as "greenlight girl") during the g4g Day, taking place at the International School of Brussels on 29 November 2014. Please fill out and return this Parental Consent & Release Form to the registration desk upon arrival on the day.

Please be aware that it is important that every girl have a signed release form before the fun filled day can begin! Empty forms will be available on site, if needed. You may fill in ONE Parental Consent & Release Form per Family.

1. Attendee's Name: (If you are filling this form out for more than one girl, please note all names, separated by a comma):

2. Special Needs: Does your greenlight girl(s) have any additional special needs for the day that were not mentioned during the pre-registration period? If so, please specify

3. Transport Home: How will your greenlight girl(s) be getting home from g4gday@Brussels Please select ONE:

I will come and pick up my greenlight girl today.

Someone I designate will come pick up my greenlight girl today.

Please provide name & contact information of person coming to pick up your greenlight girl(s):

Designated Pick-up Person: _____

Mobile Phone Number: _____

My greenlight girl is free to take Public Transport to/from the g4gday@Brussels event, and I assume all responsibility related to her doing this.

4. Image Rights: We do love to take pictures of the excitement before us, but please be aware that images are used for the sole purpose of promoting greenlight for girls and future greenlight for girls events. These images become exclusive property of greenlight for girls and will not be used, sold or shared for any purpose other than what is mentioned.

I give greenlight for girls and their event partners permission to use still and moving images of my greenlight girl(s), as captured at the greenlight for girls day.

Yes, I agree

No, I do not agree

Recording Rights: Just as last year, our supporters Radio X (an expat International radio station in Brussels) will be joining us. We will have a wonderful representative present throughout the day in case the girls would like to share their experience with her.

I give greenlight for girls and Radio X permission to record my greenlight girl(s) during the greenlight for girls day.

Yes, I agree

No, I do not agree

5. Video Rights: We will have a small “News Crew” workshop this year on the topic of energy where there will be appointed g4g interviewers and interviewees (please see “New Crew” information sheet for more info). There is still a possibility that your greenlight girl(s) get captured on film, whether accidentally or purposely.

I give greenlight for girls and their event partners permission to use any video created during the event that may include my greenlight girl(s), as recorded at the greenlight for girls day, for promoting greenlight for girls, for the sole purpose of the video itself (as explained in the “News Crew” information sheet) and future greenlight for girls events.

Yes, I agree

No, I do not agree
